Creative City Network of Canada

Creative City Network of Canada (CCNC) is a national, non-profit organization made up of municipalities, organizations and individuals working to support cultural development in their communities. CCNC facilitates knowledge sharing and professional development in the field of local cultural planning, policy and research. CCNC is a growing network of over 180 members that directly serves Canadians through annual Summits, toolkits, the Creative City e-Newsletter, our website, and the List Serve.
