OPEN CALL FOR PUBLIC ART YEAR IN REVIEW SUBMISSIONS

Growing the Creative Cultural Economy for 21st Century Cities

October 1st - 3rd, 2019 | Saskatoon, SK

Dream House, City of Toronto, ON

The Creative City Network of Canada is excited to announce its fifth annual Public Art Year in Review; a celebration of public art across Canada.

Selected artworks will be featured at the Creative City Summit taking place in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, October 1-3, 2019.

Eligibility

CCNC encourages all municipalities across Canada, developers, and artists to submit to the Year in Review to showcase what is new and exciting in their locale. All scope and scale - small to large, emerging to established - are eligible. Leap in!

Submissions may include civic, private, or community based permanent/transitory artworks or programs. All artworks must have been completed or programs debuted in the 2018 calendar year.

Submissions are limited to TWO per applicant. It is strongly suggested that commissioning agencies and artists work together on the application to ensure duplicate applications are not received.

Selection Criteria

- Artistic Merit
- Process
- Impact
- Diversity of voice
- Site specificity
- Passion plea – for cases that shine for other reasons.

When making selections the jury will also consider geographical diversity, range in community size, array of project types and budgets.

To Apply

Send in one email:

- a word document with a full narrative of up to 800 words
- up to six .jpg images that describe the project
- the project budget, location, artist and commissioner
- your full name, e-mail address, municipal or organizational affiliation and position or other role.

The deadline for submissions: is Friday, June 14th @ 5pm PST

Send to: Creative City Network of Canada - info@creativecity.ca
